This prize must be claimed within 1 month of our prize notification to the winner after which it will expire. The Promoter will contact winners of this prize to arrange for the collection by the winner of this prize at their local Dhamecha depot (with assistance of local Dhamecha depot staff).
10. There is no cash or other alternative to any of the prizes. We reserve the right to substitute any prize (including any individual element of it) for an alternative of equal or greater value but only where we deem this necessary as a result of events outside our reasonable control.
11. All winners will be drawn by the Promoter who will contact winners by email (using contact details provided on entry form) by 18 November 2020. Please also check your spam emails for any correspondence.
12. The promoter will arrange for delivery of the prizes to winners at their local Dhamecha depot for collection within 4 weeks of the prize draw taking place. It is anticipated that the Promoter will personally hand over prizes to winners at their local Dhamecha depot - the Promoter will contact winners to arrange for a suitable time and date for this to take place.
13. If we have been unable to make contact with a winner within two weeks of our notification of their prize win, we will withdraw their prize and may (at our sole discretion) choose to select an alternative winner instead. We will make a reasonable number of follow-up attempts to make contact with winners over the course of the week before withdrawing their prize for failure to make contact with us. We will use the contact details that the winner provided to us when they entered the promotion.
14. Prize winners may be required to take part in reasonable unpaid publicity in connection with this promotion (including participating in photographs at prize handover) which we may use for our
